DESCRIPTION OF THE DEGREE PROGRAM

General Objective

Educate performing arts professionals capable of performing as choreographic performers, as well as contributing to the knowledge of the stage and the education of performing artists with a collective conscience based on collaboration, reflection, responsibility and tolerance.

Specific Objectives

Educate contemporary dance performers capable of knowing and managing the movement of the human body both physically and expressively. Respond intellectually, emotionally and physically to choreographic demands. Learn and understand the tools of the choreographic profession to contribute to it in a creative way. Understand the role of dance in society, its educational, recreational and artistic aspects. Synthesize, evaluate and apply theoretical and technical knowledge for use with artistic purposes. Respond to the needs of the labor market with a high technical and aesthetic level. Participate in the creation of groups focused on creating a theatrical movement that represents and fulfills an aesthetic and social function.

WHAT-CAN-YOU-DO-WITH-THIS-DEGREE?

Skills Acquired

Graduates with a Bachelor of Arts in Dance are versatile professionals, physically and emotionally trained to interpret choreographic works of contemporary character in a precise, clear and compelling way. They have theoretical and practical knowledge of the human body and the movement it produces to control it expressively. They have developed an ability to respond to creative and artistic stimuli that allow them to participate actively in the choreographic process and know the elements that the creation of a dance production requires. They have basic pedagogical knowledge to participate in educational processes in both the technical aspect and the development of creativity.

Professional fields

Graduates in Performing arts are employed as performers in theater productions, multidisciplinary shows and performance both in formal and alternative spaces. They also take part in television and radio programs and commercials as well as film industry projects. They can direct dance groups and companies, carry out teaching activities for institutions from elementary to high school education, perform management, cultural and artistic promotion tasks within educational and cultural institutions or independently as well create choreographic and/or theater productions for the stage.
